Overseas Student Health Cover (OSHC) Student Visa only 2008 Single: $29.00/month Family: $58.00/month

Government Regulations require you to pay a health cover premium (OSHC). This must be paid either directly to Specialty Language Centre with your tuition fees or to IDP/ the Australian Education Centre.

How to pay: Please make your Bank Draft, Postal Note or Traveller's Cheque payable to Specialty Language Centre. Payments may be remitted by Telegraphic Transfer direct to our Account No. 012071 495784619 at Australia and New Zealand Banking Group Limited, 665 - 669 George Street, Haymarket, N.S.W. 2000, Australia. All bank charges must be paid. We also accept Bankcard, Visacard, Mastercard or American Express card.

Conditions of Enrolment

- Enrolment, Accommodation placement and Airport transfer fees are not refundable.
- If a visa application is rejected, the tuition fee will be refunded upon presentation of the rejection letter from the Embassy. If you wish to cancel your enrolment for any other reason and your written notice is received by the College 28 days or more before your course starting date, a cancellation fee equivalent to 20% of the tuition fee will be retained. If you cancel your enrolment and you notify the College in writing less than 28 days before your course starting date, a cancellation fee equivalent to 12 weeks tuition fee will be retained (100% tuition fee will be retained in the case of Visitor or Working Holiday visa). If you cancel your enrolment on or after your course starting date, or you withdraw from the course after its commencement, the tuition fee will not be refunded. If you are introduced to the College through a third party which retains any portion of your payment or charges you any additional fees, such monies will not be refunded by the College except the portion of prepaid tuition fees from you, as such the third party/person shall be deemed to be your agent and not an agent of the College. Regarding processes for claiming a refund and the detailed explanation please see 'Further explanation regarding Refund Procedures' in the 'Information for Students (Pre-Enrolment)'.
3. Should you wish to cancel your accommodation for any other reason than a refusal of your visa, Homestay fee will be refunded only if you notify the College in writing more than 28 days before your course starting date.
- The College reserves the right to cancel or defer courses, and to alter course timetables and class locations without notice. If the College cancels, terminates or defers any course and is unable to offer a suitable alternative course, you will be refunded the amount of course money the College received in accordance with the Education Services for Overseas Students Act 2000. The refund will be provided within 2 weeks of the default date.
- In the case of your default, no refund can be made while you are in Australia and the refund, if entitled, will be made only after you have completed the Indemnity and Release Paper.
- The College reserves the right to withdraw all its services if your conduct disrupts the normal operation of classes. In this case no fee will be refunded.
- You or, if you are under the age of 18, your parents/guardian must agree to indemnify the College and/or its staff from any responsibility and/or claim for any possible injury, damage or loss during your attendance at any of our programmes or stay at the host family.
- There will be no refunds or deductions for public holidays or the extra teacher's official holiday (usually on the first Monday in August).
- Entry fees on excursions are an extra cost to students.
- Entry requirements shall be in accordance with the ESOS Act 2000, the National Code and rules set by Government Departments.
- Full amount of total invoice (Document of Offer) amount shall be paid at the time of enrolment unless instalment arrangements or a different time of payment is agreed and specified in the College's invoices (Document of Offer). In the case of specially agreed instalments the College reserves the right to charge you a penalty of not less than $200 each time for every delay in your payments. Notwithstanding this clause, If you fail to pay fees on due date or at the latest upon receipt of due notice, the College reserves the right to terminate your enrolment.

The above Conditions do not remove the right to complain and appeal through the College's Complaints and Appeals Processes and also take further action under Australia's consumer protection laws. Upon signing the enrolment form you are deemed to have entered into a written agreement with the College based on the conditions of enrolment, and have agreed that all information provided by you including personal and contact details, course enrolment details and changes, and the circumstance of any suspected breach by you of a student visa condition may be made available to Commonwealth and State agencies and the Fund Manager of the ESOS Assurance Fund, pursuant to obligations under the ESOS Act 2000 and the National Code

The College's dispute resolution processes do not circumscribe the student's right to pursue other legal remedies. You have an obligation to notify the College of a change of address while enrolled in the course.
